

FYI.....Bob Meehan has done very well with his project to update & modernise his Museum and it's well worth a visit if you ever on the Gold Coast ....

G'Day Everyone.

Well it's been a long, extremely busy and expensive year (2014) for me with the updating of the exhibits of the Gold Coast War Museum.

The Portable Showcases Project.

To finally this, 28 cases depicting every deployment from Colonial times to the present.

The “HUEY” Project

From this

To this

To finally this, a Vietnam veteran Iroquois helicopter, to movie star (San Andreas is an upcoming American action-adventure disaster film, release June 2015), to a museum quality exhibit.

Update of the showcases in the “DOME”

From this

To finally this, all showcases within the Dome have been updated.

As you can see by the photos, mission accomplished. I am now looking forward to a more relaxing and less expensive 2015.

Cheers everyone and hope you have a great 2015.....and look forward to you visiting the museum.....

Bob Meehan.
